SUPPORTERS COME TOGETHER TO SPREAD KINDNESS AND SUPPORT CASA SAN JOSE ON GIVING TUESDAY

Pittsburgh, PA - This Giving Tuesday 2022 Casa San Jose participated in the local fundraising campaign Give Big Pittsburgh, led by Pittsburgh Magazine. Supporters had the opportunity to donate to their favorite local nonprofits during a 24-hour online event, and many chose to spread their generosity to Casa San Jose, which had a goal of fundraising $50,000.

The first supporters to submit their online donations did so hours before the sun came out, and 18 hours into the campaign, Casa San Jose had already exceeded the $50,000 mark in donations. More than 200 people contributed to the organization, raising over $66,000. Family, friends, neighbors, allies, and people from our community showed their appreciation by helping us continue the work we do. This magnanimous support is a tangible sign that Pittsburgh believes in our vision of a city that welcomes immigrants and embraces inclusion, dignity, and respect.

We at Casa San Jose are extraordinarily grateful for the generosity demonstrated by our supporters. The numerous messages of love, appreciation, and encouragement warmed our hearts and strengthened our commitment to the community we serve. With these resources, we will continue providing connections to healthcare professionals, specialized educational youth curriculums, guidance in navigating Pittsburgh's resources, and programs that uplift entire communities. Thank you for your support.
